

It is important that we take time to “water our faith” to allow it to grow and evolve outside of the hour we carve out for church each week. Please reflect on places and situations in your day-to-day life that you feel renew your faith and write them above to remind you throughout the week.