This series is led by the Rev. Dr. Bill Morrow, Professor of Hebrew and Hebrew Scriptures, Queen's University School of Religion. He also taught Old Testament studies at Queen's Theological College from 1987-2015. Author of many pieces on biblical and ancient Near Eastern literature, much of his scholarship has dealt with images of trauma and violence in the Bible. This event offers a series of lectures and in-depth study on passages in the Christian Scriptures connected to ecological concerns. It takes place in Chalmers United Church, at the corners of Barrie, Clergy and Earl Streets, Kingston, Ontario.

EVERYONE WELCOME!
