LIGHTING THE CHRIST CANDLE

One As we find ourselves wrapped in the season of wonder and light, the astonishment that is life ignites our spirits, and we feel, if merely for a moment, that we are as we were meant to be. May we hold fast to this sliver of mystery, this truth upon which we set the whole of who we are.

All May we call ourselves back to it time and again, until we are filled with the wonder that is our life– its hope, its peace, its joy, its love. Infused, then, with all that we are, may our energies be given to the transformation of this world—from despair into hope; from darkness into light; from fear into love. May we be bold. May we be daring. May we be love.

The Christ Candle is lit.

CHRISTMAS PRAYER

All Holy One, born anew each Christmas Eve, be born anew in us this night. This is the sacred moment we have waited for. These are the open hearts we have prepared. Come Holy Child and transform our living. Come, Holy Light, and kindle our spirits. Come Holy Love and fill us. This is what we have been waiting for. Come. Amen.

stand CAROL VU 74 What Child Is This?

A WORLD ENGAGED WITH GOD

All We open now to Sacred Mystery, to the Holy One, infinitely greater than words can express, whose love for us and all creation exceeds our capacity to imagine. Amen

The Nativity According to Luke - Luke 2: 1-12 Susan Irving

One Hear what the Spirit is saying to the church.

All Thanks be to God.

COMMUNION AT THE MANGER

WELCOMING TO THE TABLE

One At this table we give thanks for justice, love, peace and freedom.

All At this table we give thanks for friends and strangers.

One At this table we welcome old and young. All are invited.

PRAYER OF GREAT THANKSGIVING

One God is with us

All God is within us!

One Open your hearts

All Our hearts open to the mystery of this night.

One Let the heavens rejoice!

O Holy one, we join with the creatures of the Earth, giving thanks that Earth is your body and from Her womb, through your beloved servant, Mary,
one was born who showed us the path of humility.

The whole universe:
stars and mountains, lamas and lions,
flowers and forests, the angels and the human ones,
all join in a canticle of the cosmos celebrating this enfleshing miracle - your incarnation in Christ and through this evolving miracle of life.

All Holy, Holy, Holy God,
Earth is full of your glory!
In this sacred Bethlehem birth we are reminded that we are called to give birth to the Christ in our age.

One In Jesus, your intention to carry all creation into wholeness pulls us along.

We come to know your love as a holy alluring to be,
for this planet, the presence of love.

The Word made flesh gathered with his friends for a final meal,
a last reminder that he was the very heart of God,
symbolized in bread and wine, broken and poured out so that we might find our way back to your heart.

All You, O Holy One, are blessed.
You, O Holy One, are good.
You, O Holy One, are gracious.
You, O Holy One, are always blessing, always birthing, always becoming.
All praise and honor and glory are yours. Amen.

One So, with all the saints in heaven and on earth,
we join our hearts in prayer for your church and our world.
We pray for the church of Jesus Christ.
We pray for the healing of creation and the healing of nations.
We pray for those who are in sorrow or in pain. (silence)
We pray for all who live with violence or injustice. silence
Gather the cries of our hearts for your world, bringing hope and faith and love into being.
Send, O God, your Holy Spirit, upon us and what we do here.
That we and these gifts, touched by your Spirit,
may be signs of life and love to one another, and to the world.

COMMUNION ANTHEM

Draw near – Jonathan Willcocks

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

All We give you thanks, Holy One,
that you have come to us through Jesus Christ, both in the midst of time and history in the city of Bethlehem,
and in the timeless presence of Christ's Spirit.
Let us renew our sense of belonging to this fellowship
as we seek to bring the words and ways of Jesus into relevant connection with life.
